

LUDLUM FOOD MART IGA

---

COUPON POLICY

- Coupons must be presented at time of purchase.
- All coupons must be clear and without alterations. Any coupons that appear out of proportion, blurry or are obvious duplicates will not be accepted.
- All coupons must have a scan-able bar code and a remittable manufacturer's address.
- All coupons redeemed must be for the exact product stated. For example, it must be for the correct size, color, flavor, etc.
- Coupon value cannot exceed the retail price of the item. We do not give cash back on coupons.
- Only one manufacturer coupon per item will be accepted. However, a customer may use a valid manufacturer coupon in combination with a Ludlum Food Mart store coupon on the same item.
- Expired coupons will not be accepted. All coupons must have a valid expiration date. Coupons that appear to have an altered expiration date will not be accepted.

PRINTABLE INTERNET COUPONS

- All coupons must have a scan-able bar code and must state that it is a manufacturer/vendor coupon.
- Coupons for "FREE product" will not be accepted. "Free product" coupons should always be pre-printed and sent via postal mail or published in media, and printed on double sided and/or security paper. However buy-one-get-one-free coupons that have a purchase requirement are acceptable.
- Coupons for a high value relative to the cost of the item will not be accepted. Coupons should not be more than 50% of the retail price or over $3.00.

** Exception: Any coupon which has been printed from Ludlum Food Mart's IGA website with a discount of not more than 75% of the retail value of the product is allowed.
- Customers can check printable coupons for validity at <http://www.veri-fi.com>.

We reserve the right to refuse any coupon printed from the internet.

Additionally we reserve the right to change the coupon policy at any time.
